

Chocolate Rose Contest Submission Requirements

Entries must include the following:

- ♥ Seven (7) copies of the first page of a manuscript previously unsubmitted to this contest. Entry must be double-spaced, twenty-five text lines maximum. Font size must be standard 12 point. Your name must not appear on this page. The entered page should have no title. The category (contemporary or historical) should be listed in place of the title.
- ♥ The official entry form (or a photocopy) completed in its entirety, signed and dated.
- ♥ $5.00 entry fee per entry.
- ♥ A stamped self-addressed post card to be returned by the Contest Coordinator acknowledging receipt of the entry. This is optional.

Eligibility

The contest is open to MoRWA members in good standing who are unpublished in book length romantic fiction. The previous year's winners are ineligible for the current contest but may enter the next Chocolate Rose Contest if still unpublished.

Deadline for entry

Entries must be received by the contest coordinator by the March 21st MoRWA meeting if hand delivered at the meeting or March 20th if snail-mailed. The contest coordinator cannot be responsible for entries delayed in the mail.

Prizes

First, second and third places will be awarded at the April 18th MoRWA Meeting.

Judging

Each entry will be judged by the previous year's Chocolate Rose winner and five sold/published MoRWA authors. Results will be tabulated by the contest coordinator. Submissions will be returned to the entrants attending the April, May, or June meetings, with the remainder mailed. If for any reason a previous winner cannot judge, a sixth judge will be selected from the membership. Entrants must agree to have their work read by all judges. Any requests to have the submissions read by fewer judges will result in disqualification from the current contest.
